RE: LATEST INTERNAL BATTLEGROUND STATE POLLING – PRESIDENT TRUMP HOLDS
EDGE IN ALL BATTLEGROUND STATES

DATE: OCTOBER 10, 2024

Our firms just completed the latest round of Battleground State surveys in Arizona, Georgia, Michigan, Nevada, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin¹. What follows is the ballot for each state:

	AZ	GA	MI	NV	NC	PA	WI
Trump	49%	50%	49%	50%	48%	49%	49%
Harris	46	45	48	47	47	48	48
Undecided	5	5	3	3	5	3	3
Net Trump +/-	+3	+5	+1	+3	+1	+1	+1

As you can clearly see, President Trump holds an edge in all 7 Battlegrounds including all the “Blue Wall States.” This data projected out would put President Trump at 312 Electoral votes. As importantly, President Trump is at or on the precipice of 50% in virtually all of these states.

Given today’s high inflation data and Kamala Harris’ admission that she would not have changed or done anything different than Joe Biden, we expect that President Trump’s edge will only continue to solidify.

¹ Surveys of 800 Likely Voters were conducted in each state between October 6 – 9 utilizing a mixed mode data collection methodology of landlines, cell phones and SMS to web interviewing. Individual state data is weighted to reflect likely voter populations. Margin of error for each survey is +/- 3.5% at the 95% confidence interval.
